RICHARD RUBIN

Foreword

As we all gather for the last round-up at the big corral, and the cries of, "Go West Young Man, Go West," ring in our ears, fond memories of the past keep coming to our minds. It is with sincere regret that we ride forth as pioneers to our chosen fields of endeavor.

When we first entered Western as tenderfeet, little did we realize the pleasures that were to be ours. Now that we are seasoned hands, having been patiently molded by our teachers, can we appreciate the harrowing experiences, the many joys, the wonderful friends, and the many activities that we have been privileged to be a part of? Our gratitude goes to those who were so patient with our childish whims, and helped us to achieve this glorious day in round-up time.

When we have galloped out of the big corral, and the dust settles in a few years, may this "Record" of the class of January, 1953, rekindle your memories of Western. It is our hope that you meet success in your undertakings, as did the pioneers who proudly built this great school forty years ago.

Dedication

We, the class of January, 1953, will forever cherish this, our "Record", as a treasured memento of West Philadelphia High School. Because it holds such a revered place in our hearts, it is with pride and justice that we dedicate our "Record", representing our three years in high school, to Miss Georgina Melville, who is dear to all of us.

During her twenty-six years as sponsor of the "Western News", all who came in contact with her found Miss Melville to be extremely just and warm-hearted. Those who did not meet her were few, because her interest in us, the students, was unlimited. We knew her to be a most unusual and wonderful English teacher, and a wise and sincere friend. Those of us who were in her classes found ourselves coming back term after term, to tell her of our problems, our interests, and our accomplishments. We always found her eager to listen and help us.

Under Miss Melville's guidance, the "Western News" grew from a mere idea to one of the finest high school publications in the city. It was because of her untiring efforts that our newspaper is one of the traditions at Western, one of which we are most proud. She endeavored, constantly, to provide us with news which would be both interesting and informative. Her devotion to our publication and the student body it served inspired all those who worked with her to produce the finest of which they were capable.

We hope that this dedication will aid in proving to Miss Melville that her warmth, her devotion, and her understanding will never be forgotten, and that she will forever be honored in all our hearts.

Miss Melville.

Our sincere friend.

And wonderful teacher.

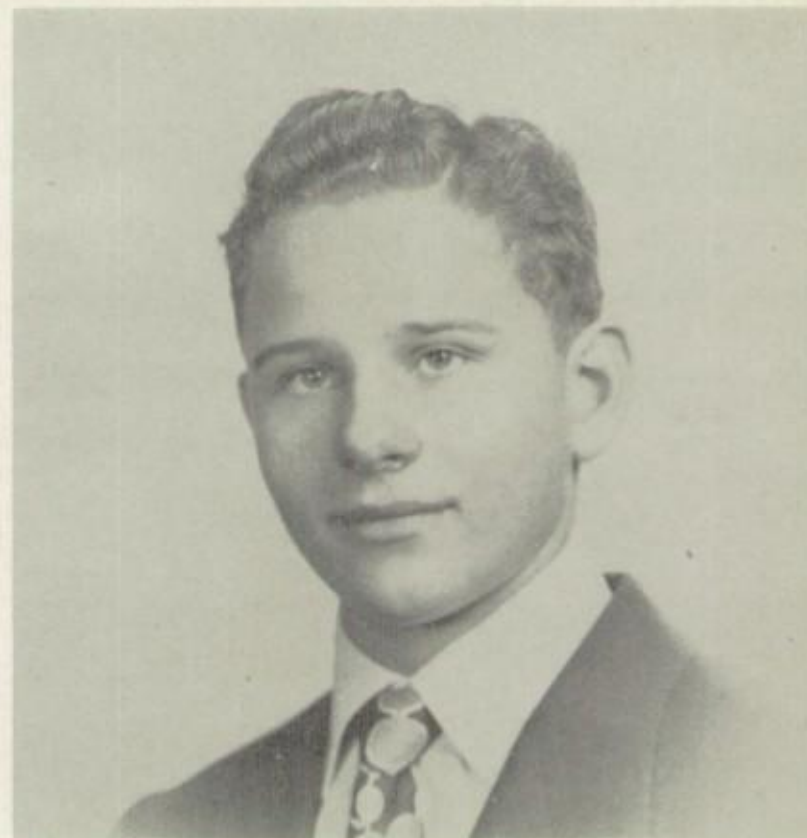

In Memoriam

Beatrice Mahoney

The sudden death of our beloved classmate, Beatrice Mahoney, was a great shock to everyone. Beatrice was musically inclined, and she played the violin very well. Taking an active part in both the band and the orchestra, she will be remembered also for her kindness and thoughtfulness. Her loyalty and unselfishness will long be cherished in our memories.

Remembrance is the rose that blooms,
Eternal year by year,
Fond memories clinging to our hearts,
Keep loved ones ever near.

Harvey Gayer

His memory is stamped indelibly in the hearts of his entire class. Harvey's friendliness will always burn brightly along the pathway of our lives.

Sad and sudden was the call,
Of one so dear and loved by all,
A bitter grief, a shock severe,
To part with one we held so dear;
God loved him too, and thought it best,
So took him to eternal rest.

Principal's Message

To the Class of January, 1953:

"Go West, Young Man!"

Mr. Cary of our Art Department, in his delightful farce, has given West Philadelphia High School a sort of personal proprietorship to a great slogan of our rapidly expanding nation in the mid-nineteenth century. Just for the sake of the record, it might be worth noting that this famous bit of advice commonly attributed to Horace Greeley, a forceful New York editor, was not original with him. It first appeared in the Terre Haute, Indiana, "Express" in 1851, in an article by John Babsone Soule. Mr. Greeley realizing its wisdom seized upon it and used it on many occasions, but was always willing to acknowledge the source of his inspiration.

It meant many things in those thrilling days: go where there is more room to grow and expand; go where you can stake out a new claim for yourself; go where there are more opportunities and less competition; go where you can be master of your own fate in the realest sense!

The government declared in 1893 that the frontier no longer existed. There was no longer a West, in the physical sense of Greeley's famous advice to which a young man might go. But I should like to point out to you young men and women that there still is, and always will be a West, in the mental and spiritual sense, that still is beckoning bright, eager, industrious, unafraid souls to its El Dorado. You don't need to bewail the fact that you were not born a century ago. There is no single way in which you can turn today that frontiers are not waiting to be pushed back, and are being pushed back from year to year, by patient research, by daring experimentation, by profound thinking. Man's greatest achievements and successes lie ahead, not behind. Be thankful that you live in such a tremendous age, and pray daily for the qualities of heart and mind that will enable you to take an honorable part in the glorious march to a brighter day and better world.

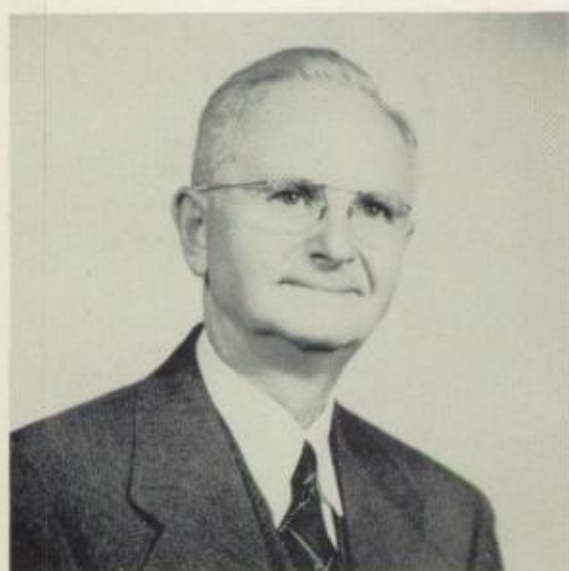

Our prayers and best wishes go with all of you as you "Go West!" sons and daughters of West Philadelphia High School.

Sincerely your friend,

GEORGE MONTGOMERY

School Officers

Congratulations to you, the class of January, 1953. You have completed your high school training, and graduation is your reward. Congratulations and Godspeed as you press toward your goal in life.

Yours sincerely,

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

FRONT ROW: Sternman, Wynn, Campolo, Rothberg, Kaufman. SECOND ROW: Henderson, Seitz, Godfrey, Klein, Nager, Admiral, Tuft. THIRD ROW: Hutton, Gripman, Utain, Miller, Deitch, Fastman, Clayman, Newberg.

Around these here parts the law is divided into many branches, each of which has its specific job. The Senate makes all the laws, which are carried out by the Board of Directors. Patrol posses arrest the outlaws and haul them into court. These law-breakers are dealt with at our lynching parties or Tribunal meetings.

There are twenty pardners who serve on the Board of Directors. These are the President and Vice President of the Citizens' Association, Chairman of the Senate; Attorney-General; Chairman of the Tribunal; Chairman of Carroll Phillips; Chairman of Group Aides; Director of Patrols; and one cowboy and one cowgirl elected from every class in the school.

To facilitate its chores, this group of officers is divided into the following committees: Publicity, Entertainment, Election, Social Service; Membership, Ushers, Color Guard, Boys' Lunchroom, Boys' Lavatory; Girls' Lunchroom, Girls' Lavatory; Interscholastic League, and Education of Students.

Before it may become official, the Board must pass on any appropriation of money or law made by the Senate. Also, the Tribunal and Attorney-General Staff are elected by these people.

This term these officers were busily engaged in preparing for the production of "Go West Young Man." This necessitated the creation of three new committees: the Program, Ticket, and Clerical Staff.

The management of the Novelty Shop is another important function of this group. For the convenience of its students, the school sells pencils, book-covers, felt and paper emblems, pennants, stickers, hats, and polo-shirts in Room 215A.

For keeping our financial records in such perfect order, Miss Betty McGlathery, school treasurer, certainly deserves credit.

Dr. Mabel Haller, the capable sponsor of our Citizens' Association, has worked diligently and earnestly at making Western's Citizens' Association as successful as it is.

THERE'S A RULE ABOUT IT

The Senate

The Senate, legislative power of Western, is composed of one representative from each group. This term, the foreman of our law-making body is Evelyn Admiral, who conducts the Senate meetings, sets forth new issues, and appoints committees. When the foreman is absent, Gerald Smith, vice-foreman, presides at the Senate. Taking minutes at the round-ups, which are held every third Friday, is the difficult task efficiently being done by the secretary, Carole Frascadore.

If a matter requiring arbitration occurs, Dr. Mabel Haller, faculty advisor, is called in as a mediator.

The functions of the Senate are manifold, and its powers include appropriating money for C. A. purposes, regulating, governing, approving all by-laws, and granting charters to clubs and other school functions. All complaints or suggestions made in the group rooms are brought before the Senate for further discussions and consideration. These issues are discussed, decisions are made, and, when necessary, amendments are added to the school constitution.

During the spring season and the Christmas season, the Senate solicits voluntary contributions from the student body. The funds received are given to organizations such as the Red Cross, Red Feather, and March of Dimes. The Christmas donations are given to children's hospitals and children's organizations.

The Senate is divided into fourteen committees working for the improvement of Western. They are: Activities, Attendance, Boys' Lavatory, Boys' Lunchroom, Budget, Entertainment, Girls' Lavatory, Girls' Lunchroom, PTC, Safety, Servicemen's, Social Service, Student Council, and Ushers.

The Senate of W. P. H. S. is a moving force which exists for the benefit of its student body. Its honesty and intelligence in handling student affairs have branded it as an indispensable part of Western.

HEADIN' FOR THE SHERIFF'S OFFICE

The law in this town is called the Tribunal. It has the responsibility of trying all hombres accused of cattle-rustling, stepping across the boundaries, and offending the sheriff.

If the wrangler is found guilty by this round-up of six judges, he is given night-watch over the cattle or made to sweep out the bunk house.

The ranchers act as lawyers around these parts. They either defend the accused pardner or act as prosecutors of the law. Sheriff Joseph Rothberg and his deputy Edward Kaufman have recently captured the most dangerous outlaws in this here section.

Patrols

Along with the other things out here in Western, we have our posse, in the form of patrols, who round up all law-breaking coyotes. The Sheriff, or Director of the Patrol System is Lois Godfrey. Working along with her is the secretary, Toby Goodman. The aim of the Patrol System is to help pupils to be good citizens of the school, and to keep law and order.

Without this law-enforcement group we are sure that our school could not run so efficiently.

Western's Group Aides are on the official howdy pardner welcoming committee for the freshmen. Their job is to initiate the 10A's into the mysteries of West Philly. The Group Aides also make themselves useful to the advisers, by helping them conduct group business.

These girls deserve a vote of thanks for their efficiency in turning new students into well-informed citizens of Western; thereby giving them a good start in making their stay here as profitable and pleasant as possible.

We at Western have good cause to be proud of our paper. Ranking among the top high-school papers in Philadelphia, it gives us interesting news items about the faculty and student body as well as entertainment.

The "Western News" provides great variety in its many articles. There is a section roped off for news and sports features. But the favorite of all are the class columns, which include gossip about students in the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grades. The members of the "Western News" Staff, its sponsor, Mrs. Murphy, and the business sponsor, Mrs. Macauley, have given us a great paper throughout our terms here at Western.

THEY MAKE PLUMB GOOD MUSIC

A crescendo of beauty; a final thrilling chord, and the West Philadelphia High School Orchestra accepts a deeply appreciated and deserved ovation. This talented aggregation of ambitious, enthusiastic musicians practice long hours, under the direction of Mr. Maier Levin.

The officers of this organization are Myra Singer, president and first bassoonist to play in the orchestra; Edwin Slogoff, vice president and concertmeister; Elaine Markowitz, secretary; and Joan Skaroff, the marimba player, is treasurer.

These talented musicians have brought to numerous audiences a finer, clear perception of harmony. Selections such as, "Grieg's Piano Concerto in A Minor" have brought many close to the beauty of fine music. Their contribution to "Go West Young Man" enriched the production. Western's cowpokes say "Adios" to the members, and wish them good luck as the sun sinks beyond the horizon, and they ride off into the future.

Western has always been proud of its A Cappella Choir which, through the efforts of Mr. Dryfuse, its very able leader, was originated in the fall of 1940. The Choir's colorful past includes concerts at churches, private clubs, music festivals, and at other schools.

This term many of its buckaroos will graduate. Among those who are leaving is Melina Krikorian, our outstanding soloist, who is known for her lovely and melodious voice.

At the beginning of every term tryouts are given to select tenderfeet. These dudes are chosen according to their ability to carry and to learn parts. As usual, a great number of these wranglers took part in our big shindig, "Go West Young Man." In all, sixty-two members took part in the four night performance. Every year, a week before Christmas, the choir gives a Christmas assembly when the beautiful "Hallelujah Chorus" is sung. Later they mosey along the halls singing Christmas carols.

The Choir has always played an active part in Western's life, and we know it will continue to do so.

The nights of December 3, 4, 5, and 6, 1952, brought about a great stampede to our old Bar "W" Ranch which will always be remembered. As the dudes were herded into the West Auditorium, cries of "Go West Young Man" echoed throughout these here parts.

When the orchestra, under the able leadership of Mr. Maier "Hopalong" Levin, gave the downbeat, the curtain rose on the biggest, the best, the most extravagant extravaganza ever produced this side of the Schuylkill. This great production was made possible through the efforts of two-gun Selden Cary and our talented belle, Mrs. Virginia Lingenfelder, who rounded up folks from all over the school.

Combining their maximum efforts to present this completely original musical comedy, "Go West Young Man," were the A Cappella Choir, the Ballet Club, the Orchestra, and a cast picked from the entire student body. Along with this round-up of cowpokes labored the art staff under Mr. Cary's direction. These wranglers were quick on the draw to create the most unusual and magnificent scenery ever viewed on a high school stage. Others who helped make this production a success were the ranch hands, otherwise known as the stage crew, and the federal men, or as they are more commonly called, members of the Board of Directors, who were in charge of tickets and publicity.

By the cheers of the audience, who went plumb crazy over each performance, we knew that our ranch had come through with another smashing success to add to all those Westerns accumulated in past years.

The Band

This group of fast-stepping musicians love the wide open spaces. Proud of Western's traditions, they march across football fields. Mervyn Rothberg is concertmeister of these instrumentalists. Our rough-and-ready graduates are Phillip Deputy, Aida Goldstein, Myra Singer, Heather Waldbaum, and Clyde Turner. Ramona Hall leads this unit of marching players through their various maneuvers, twirling her batons in a professional manner.

Cheerleaders

Rain or shine, Western's cheering cowgirls, sparked with colorful uniforms, ride out to every football and basketball game. Both Dot Papaconstantinou, the ranch foreman, and Evie Blank, have been with the cheerleaders since they came West. These two girls and their seven partners do a mighty fine job leading the crowd in cheering for our teams. Further proof of their fine work is shown by the number of Westernites who attend each roundup.

Color Guard

Our Color Guard in traditional orange and blue duds, are found strutting their stuff at our football games. Under the leadership of Sergeant Lillian Ayton and assistant Mary Ann Bailey, they have shown perfect formation. These cowpunchers must have a "C" average, and be at least 5' 5" in height. The foreman, Mr. Levin, has done an excellent job sponsoring them.

The net-men of Western take part in spring rodeos under the able guidance of coach Hurwitz. Mr. Hurwitz and his boys work hard each day, and as a result of their cow-punching Western has one of the best Tennis teams in league competition. We owe them all a great deal of praise for a dang good job.

Coach Campbell is rounding up his matmen for gymnastic competition as of January 7th. With such cow-hands as Pyfer, Matt, Dion, and Hinton, the team should do very well. The apparatus to be used in competition are flying rings, horses, mats, horizontal bars, and parallel bars. These wranglers will build sound bodies, and Western will have another top-notch team.

Under the able tutelage of Mr. Thomas Campbell, West Philadelphia's track team has this year possessed the same excellent, all-around quality that it was known for last season.

Climaxing a season of sterling meets, was the Philadelphia Public High School Track and Field Meet at Franklin Field on May 24. West Philadelphia placed sixth with a total of 149½ points. All the teams were definitely hog-tied by the constant rainfall throughout the day. Our pole-vaulting squad, considered as good as any in the town, was unable to exhibit their best form because of the weather.

Mr. Campbell's boys did themselves proud by placing third in the four-mile relay, not to mention Earl Jefferson's third-place finish in the mile run.

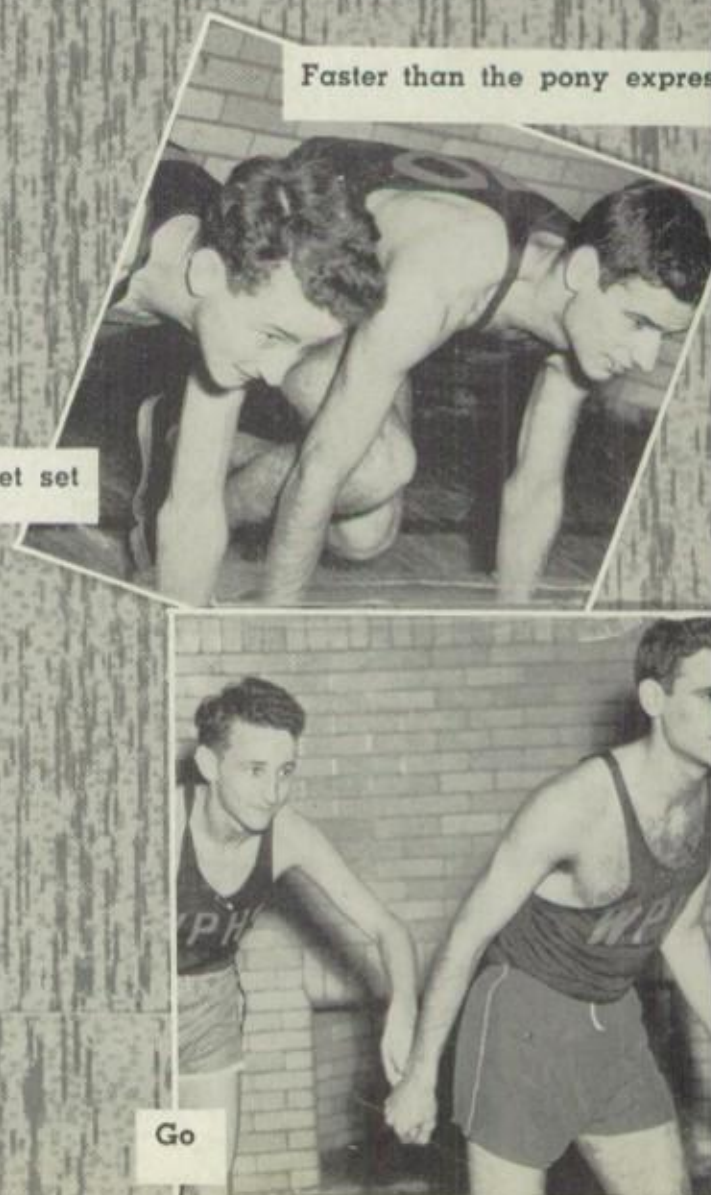

During the season the "Speedboys," lost some close encounters with rival Public High track teams. They never actually hit full stride, but there is no doubt in anyone's mind that the track season was plumb successful.

This year's team was typical of Mr. Campbell's others, being well coached and willing.

Faster than the pony express

They went that-a-way

With cowpokes like Earl Jefferson, Wade Washington, and Dick Chappell, to mention only a few, blazing the trail, Western's cross-country squad was one to be feared by every rival it tangled with. Having five meets lassoed by the end of October, the boys were looking ahead to the championship on November 5th. Western had placed second in regular season competition. Coach Thomas Campbell's boys repeated themselves in the championships by finishing in the number two slot again. Overbrook was first. The stupendous Wade Washington finished first, as many pre-meet prognosticators had expected. The entire squad performed in the commendable manner expected from our school.

November 12th brought the Eastern State Invitation Track Meet. West Philadelphia proved that they belonged on the top rail, being bested only by West Catholic and Overbrook. Again a cowboy named Mr. Washington finished in the number one position.

The season was downright successful. Coach Campbell and the fellows reckon they did their job well. Western knows they did.

Headin' for that point

Coach Jones certainly deserves much credit for shaping the team into the fine condition it is now in. Though Western's soccer team did not have a very satisfying season, they really fought hard against luck that seemed to be against them. Only one of our several setbacks was decided by more than two goals.

Our graduating seniors contributed a great deal to the team. The fighting spirit and outstanding achievements of boss cowboys Captains Bob Antrasian and Roger Rakoczy have certainly gone a long way in advancing our team. Both boys had two years of outstanding first team achievement.

Only a tight league and tough luck kept our boys from hitting the top this year. Coach Jones has done considerable re-shuffling of the lineup in order to find a winning combination for next season. We are sure he has succeeded, and we hope he has a winning team for the next round-up.

Baseball Team

BASEBALL

FRONT ROW: Gold, Hadley, Captain, Holcroft, Byrd, Hammertman, Overby, Penn, Long, Saxton.
SECOND ROW: Mr. Bickel (coach), Berkoff, Hoffman, Dourdoufis, Chapman, Miller, McCullough, Rosen, Dardarian, Goldblum, Manager.

Although the "Speedboys" got off to a tough start, losing their first six games, Western's spirited nine grabbed seven out of their nine games. Our season was climaxed with a seven win record—enough to push us into a not-too-bad sixth place in the fifteen team league.

Them thar critters from Central started us on that dang losin' streak and we plumb lost the next five in succession.

But at last the "Speedboys" got on the right side of the fence by defeating Gratz 4 to 1. Incidentally, this game featured one of the best pitchin' performances of the year on this side of the Delaware trail by "Mooch" Miller. Victories over Franklin, Dobbins, and Bok brought the "Speedboys" back in the chips.

In order for our Wranglers to lasso a decent record, it was necessary for us to take all of our last three games, and that we did pardners, and by substantial margins, too.

The fact that our boys are as tough as prairie grass and gain experience with time makes us sure that the next season will find a strong winning posse.

Western's mermen, under the careful guidance of Coach Shapiro, placed fourth in the 1951-1952 championships. They had compiled a league record of two wins and three defeats.

Dick Dickerson, a member of last year's varsity has been chosen to captain this year's squad. Coach Shapiro is also counting a great deal on Bob Savar and Walt Switkin, who were on last year's team, and also Dave Maloney and Joe Wakely, two freshmen who look good in practice.

The only members of the team that will be lost at graduation are Sam Rosenthal and Lenny Korr, two boys who have helped the team considerably during their stay at Western.

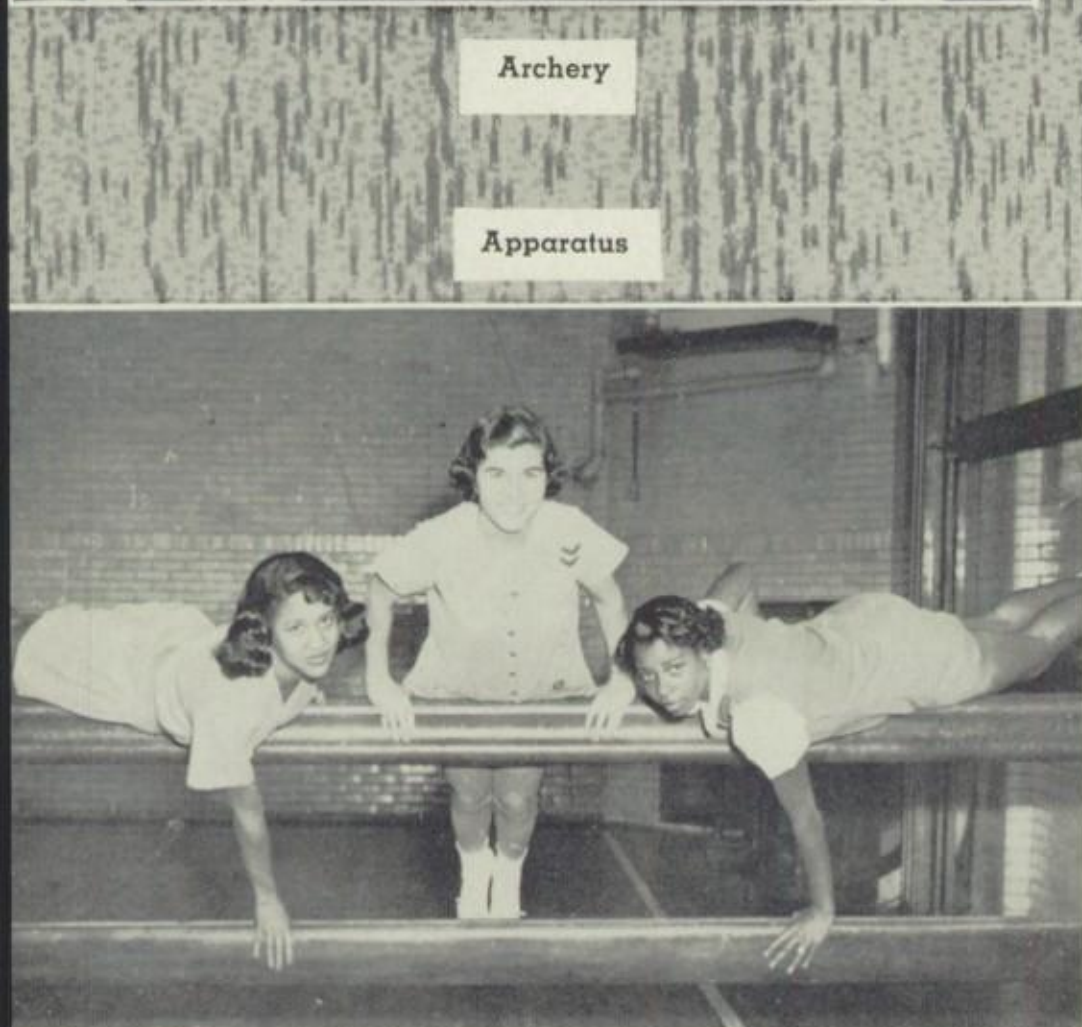

We all wish the coach and his gallant group of galloping galoots lots of luck in the coming season.

Although Western's football team did not have a successful season, their fighting spirit could not be denied. Hog-tied by injuries, the team never seemed to get started, their public league record being one win, three losses, and two ties. The only bright spots were the 25-6 defeat of Ben Franklin, and a 0-0 tie with a strong Northeast team.

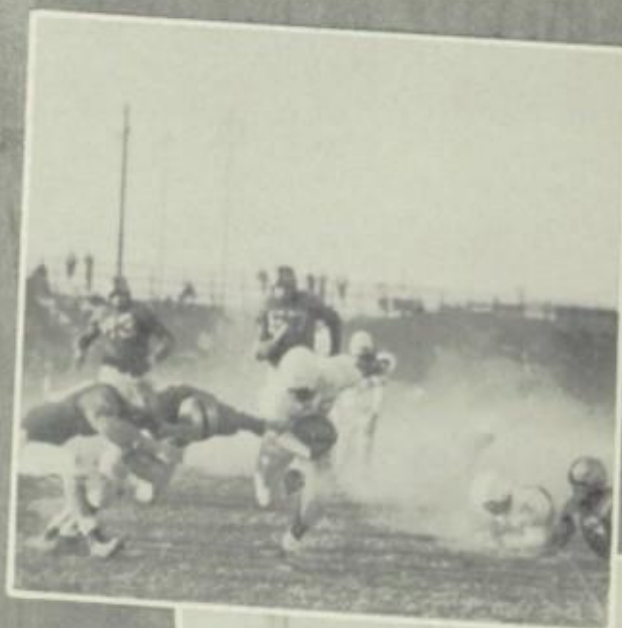

Graduating gauchos are Ronny Dobbins, Stanley Berger, Clarence Garland, Curtis Johnson, Robert King, and Pete Stamos.

Ronald Dobbins, perhaps the hardest runner the team had, was instrumental in the defeat of Ben Franklin. Stamos proved an asset to the team and was, for a while, co-captain. Garland, Johnson, King, and Berger were excellent cow-pokes to have on the team.

Gloom hovered heavily over our fair school when we lost to our traditional rival, Overbrook, by a close score of 19-18, and to West Catholic by the soaring score of 45-0.

The team once again staked their claim on Wesley Hackman for coach, and Doug Connelly for assistant coach. This year marked the twenty-fifth year of coaching Western's football teams for "Wes." During this time, he has turned out many successful teams and his ability as a coach is acknowledged throughout the city. The graduating class wishes Coach Hackman the best of luck with all his future teams.

Basketball Team

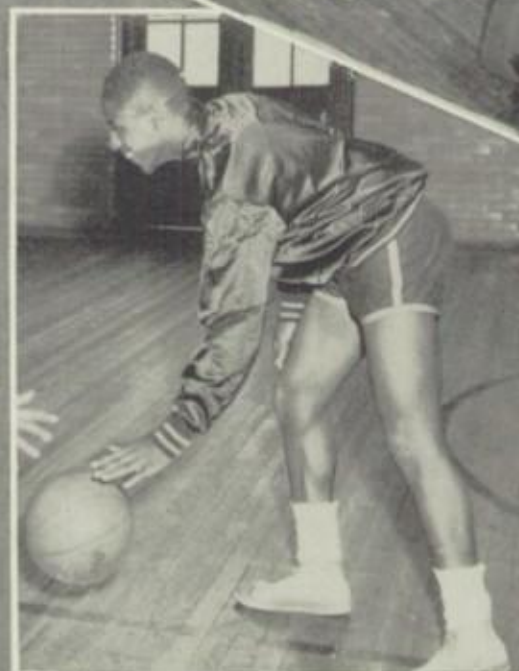

Western's Speedboys, under the fine coaching of Doug Connelly, are hoping for another great season as they prepare for the opening game with Roxborough on January sixth. In addition to Captain Gerry Smith, carryovers from last year include Sherman Newell, Harry Seay, James Byrd, Charles Peterson, and John Hammerman. The newcomers are Bob Morgan, John Simon, Jim Allen, Tom Henry, Carrol Overby, Joe Howell, Joe Goldenberger, and Ralph Levitan.

Last season the team had a league record of eight wins and one defeat. The boys were hampered, however, by the graduation of Bill Showell, which caused our loss in the playoffs.

Unofficial games this season resulted in a win over Friends Central (60-15) and Penn Charter (47-40), and losses to Lower Merion (54-52) and to West Catholic (62-53).

Miss Ansley

To the Class of January, 1953:

I have liked you boys and girls very much, and I hope earnestly that God will grant you long and happy lives, which you may make good ones by your honest hard work and your thoughtfulness toward other people. God bless you all.

Sincerely,
RUTH ANSLEY

The class of January '53 wishes to pay tribute here to three former sponsors, Mrs. Bahr, pictured here, and Mrs. Koiner and Mrs. Bieber who were in charge of our class when we first entered Western.

Miss Cohen

Mrs. Bahr

My association with this class has been short, but very pleasant. I came to you in your final term as the last of your several sponsors, and found you enthusiastic and co-operative in all of your senior activities.

Now that you have achieved that glorious goal, your graduation from high school, I extend congratulations to all of you and ask God's blessing upon your future plans. As you work toward the fulfillment of whatever those plans may be, I hope you will always be guided by the principles of high-mindedness and fair play that we cherish here at Western.

Sincerely,
PAULINE D. COHEN

Committees

Due to the fine work of our cowhands on the prom committee, the hoedown was a great social success. Jerry Steiner was the foreman of this committee. Four wranglers from the class council, and six dudes elected by the council from the class at large were in charge of the affairs. It was the job of these people to select prom keys, arrange the programs, have tickets printed, decorate the ball room, and to see that the prom went along smoothly.

Another committee was composed of six ranch hands who put on the class show. Two of these were from the Class Council; the remaining four were representatives of the class. These cowpokes had the mighty hard task of preparing and staging the entertainment that was presented to us at our luncheon. The memory of our fine class show will always be bright in our recollections of our days at Western.

Our prom will remain one of the pleasantest memories of our senior year. The beautiful ballroom of the Broadwood Hotel was the gala setting for the occasion. The Peter Stuyvesant

This is Archie, pardners, bringing back memories of May 23, 1952.

With the crow of the rooster we awoke anticipating the wonderful time we knew was in store. At eight-thirty A.M. the Reading Terminal was filled with enthusiastic Westernites, and a little later we were on our way. Remember the train ride to Jersey City? The sun streamed through the windows assuring us of fair weather ahead. At Jersey City we boarded our ship, "The Peter Stuyvesant."

We went cruising up the Hudson with the view of the New York skyline as our guide.

Then we reached our destination—West Point. There was the rum-tumming of the Army band and we saw a few tackles at scrimmage by the well-known "football wizards." A few of our gals practised their Western "wahoos" when they spotted a cute cadet, but it was to no avail.

Before we knew it, the time had come to leave, so we hobbled-on back to our ship and went down the Hudson to the setting of the orange sun beyond the blue waters.

And so "pardners", came the end of a glorious day—Our Senior Class Trip.

As seen through

Yippee! It's round-up time with the Class of January '53! Catch that runaway bronco and jump on his back for a dash into the Crystal Ball Prairie!

Oops! Watch those cactuses! So sorry, Pardon those green things are freshmen! Could it be they are running for the giant water hole? Never! It's February 2, 1950 and the East Auditorium is their aim. The poor innocent lambs are ready to be tied and branded by the galloping Law and Order—alias The Faculty.

The 11A Class sent out a welcoming hand in the form of their rollicking show "Alice in Wonderland." After that, the babes started going places on their own.

They learned how to outsmart, out-ride, and out-yodel the sheriffs of the Patrol System. They even went so far as to manage to tuck a stable's menagerie in a 2" by 4" locker!

Many of the cowgirls took part in the "Egyptian Ballet" and the entire school gained admiration when the "Hopalong" boys of the Relay Team captured first place honors in the Philadelphia Public High One-Mile Relay Classic!

In 10B, "The Nutcracker Suite" made its debut and caused many of our classy lads and lasses to go plus crazy applauding its merits.

"Ninny Clubs" blew in and out of existence, but the "Ninnies" remained loyal to their cause—Texas cactus!

On December 14, 1950, the Great Fire blew through the Great Gulch. Cries of "Timber" and "Lunch served" were echoing through our smoke-filled hallways.

11A! Still going strong, we wrote, produced, directed and starred in our Class Show for the freshmen. We moved the proverbial swimming pool from the fourth floor to the third—the teachers and pupils were complaining about the dripping! The Charleston regained its popularity as completely as when it was introduced in the roaring twenties. This number was done in authentic costumes—flappers, ya know! We also offered ballet and jitterbugging marathons.

History

two bowlegs

Barbara Nager
Grade Director

The little freshmen went ga ga over the show and those who didn't, well—pistol shots were heard in the far!

The Speedboys captured the Public High School League Crown in Basketball at the Palestra when they upset Franklin, 41-37! Of course, we had expected it along of our rip-roaring sharp shooters!

We all bowed our heads in reverence when Mr. Walter Roberts retired as principal and shouted a mighty "How-de-do" to Mr. George Montgomery, Chief Marshall of our ranch.

In 11B our Class Council began to pump. The Dramatic Club hit oil in their comedy presentation of "Heaven Can Wait", and as upper classmen we cheerfully directed the way to our famous swimming pool and sold elevator passes at enormous profits!

A bit of Fairyland invaded the school in the form of "Hansel and Gretel", our musical extravaganza on January 10, 11, and 12, 1952.

12A! Already? Leap Year! Boys beware as the Jessos leap for your precious necks! Archie Andrews makes his debut!

Many of our civic-minded girls as group aides assisted the freshmen to the many places of interest—the Novelty Shop, Detention Room and Lunchroom! But we always thought anyone could find that blindfolded. Just let your sense of smell drive you. WOW! "Death and Transfiguration" was revived and scored tremendous success.

12B! Impossible! Nevertheless, the great term arrived via Stagecoach Express. The cactuses never bloomed so bright! Locust Gulch never sparkled more! After his trip into the past, our runaway horse returns, and we hope he gallops on to a future as happy as the days spent at "Western".

Miss Gross

Mr. Cary

In Appreciation

For many years "Record" staffs have sung the praises of Miss Mary E. Gross. We feel as many before us, hopelessly lost and unable to find words enough, or a way to express our gratitude for her wonderful guidance. As we sit in silence, and wonder at her many achievements, let it be known that we, the "Record" staff of January, 1953, cherish her sponsorship with the sincerest respect.

Thanks, merely a word, but we hope it expresses our admiration and appreciation to Mr. Selden Cary, for his help as our art sponsor. Each suggestion, new idea, or change, has given our "Record" the different look. So we say to Mr. Cary remember, our thanks means more than just a word.
